

Tobie Sconce

Assistant Professor

Profile

I am an assistant professor with over 5 years of experience in teaching, research and administration. I have taught at the undergraduate and graduate levels, advised students, conducted research and published papers in my field. I have also served on committees and held administrative positions within my department. My skills include effective communication, problem solving, multitasking, time management and organization.

Employment History

Assistant Professor at University of Florida, FL

May 2022 - Present

- Authored 12 peer-reviewed journal articles.
- Presented at 15 national and international conferences.
- Led 3 successful research grants totaling $1.5 million.
- Served as PI on an NIH-funded R01 grant.
- Mentored 5 graduate students and 4 postdoctoral fellows.

Associate Professor at Florida State University, FL

Aug 2017 - Mar 2022

- Authored 12 peer-reviewed journal articles.
- Presented at 15 national and international conferences.
- Led 3 successful grant-funded research projects.
- Served as PI on 1 NIH-funded grant.
- Taught 9 undergraduate courses and 5 graduate courses.

Certificates

Certified Teacher

Oct 2020

Certified Professor

Aug 2019

Memberships

American Association of University Professors

American Association of Colleges for Teacher Education

✉ tobie.sconce@gmail.com

☎ (571) 846-2884

📍 W 13th Ave, Tampa, FL 33606

Education

PhD in Psychology at University of Florida

Aug 2013 - May 2017

I have learned research and writing skills, as well as how to think critically and analytically.

Links

linkedin.com/in/tobiesconce

Skills

Public Speaking

Writing

Researching

Teaching

Critical Thinking

Time Management

Languages

English

Bengali

Hobbies

Reading

Cooking

Traveling