

Falisa Gialanella

Boatswain

I am a highly experienced Boatswain with over 5 years spent working in the maritime industry. I have an extensive knowledge of all aspects of vessel operations, maintenance and repair, as well as navigation and safety procedures. I am a hardworking and reliable individual who is always willing to go the extra mile to get the job done right. Throughout my career, I have consistently demonstrated my ability to work effectively both independently and as part of a team. I am now seeking a new challenge where I can utilise my skills and experience to make a positive contribution to your organisation
