PROFILE

As a certified coding specialist with over three years of experience, I have gained a wealth of knowledge in the medical billing and coding field. My experience has taught me how to effectively communicate with insurance companies, physicians, and patients. I have also learned how to troubleshoot problems that may arise during the course of treatment. In addition to my coding expertise, I am also proficient in using electronic health records (EHR) systems. This allows me to efficiently track patient progress and ensure accuracy throughout the coded data. My commitment to providing quality care extends beyond simply completing tasks; it is important to me that every patient receives the best possible outcome from their treatments
