Profile

I am a delivery driver with over three years of experience. I have an excellent driving record and am familiar with the streets of my city. I pride myself on being punctual and efficient, and I always put the customer first. In my previous job, I was responsible for delivering food to restaurants around town. This required me to be able to navigate through traffic quickly and safely. I also had to be able to lift heavy boxes and bags of food, as well as keep track of multiple orders at once.
