

Maria Brohm

Forensic Psychologist

✉ maria.brohm@gmail.com

☎ (616) 641-2575

📍 6369 W 11800 S, Herriman, UT 84096

EDUCATION

Doctor of Psychology in Forensic Psychology at Brigham Young University

Sep 2007 - May 2012

Some skills I've learned are interviewing, report writing, and collaborating with other professionals.

LINKS

linkedin.com/in/mariabrohm

SKILLS

Psychology

Psychiatry

Sociology

Anthropology

Criminal Justice

Forensic Science

LANGUAGES

English

Indonesian

HOBBIES

Reading

Writing

Photography

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

● Forensic Psychologist at Dr. David J. Lichtenberg, LLC, UT

May 2022 - Present

- Successfully completed psychological evaluations for 100+ court-referred clients.
- Conducted forensic interviews with child victims of sexual abuse and presented findings in court.
- Successfully testified as an expert witness in 15+ criminal cases.
- Assisted in the development of a risk assessment tool used to predict recidivism rates among sex offenders.
- Authored a peer-reviewed article on eyewitness memory which was published in The Journal of Psychology.
- Served as a consultant to local law enforcement agencies on cold case investigations.

● Senior Forensic Psychologist at Psychological Associates of Salt Lake City, UT

Sep 2019 - Apr 2022

- Led a team of 5 junior psychologists in conducting psychological evaluations of 50 criminal suspects.
- Authored a paper on the psychological effects of solitary confinement that was published in the Journal of Forensic Psychology.
- Presented findings at national conferences on the topics of juvenile offenders and recidivism rates.
- Successfully completed over 300 hours of continuing education courses in forensic psychology.
- Served as an expert witness in 15 court cases involving questions about mental health and competency to stand trial.

● Lead Forensic Psychologist at The Law & Psychology Group, UT

Sep 2012 - Aug 2019

- Led a team of 5 forensic psychologists in conducting psychological evaluations of over 100 criminal defendants.
- Authored over 50 scientific articles on topics related to forensic psychology, including jury selection and eyewitness testimony.
- Presented expert testimony in court on multiple occasions regarding the psychological evaluation of criminal defendants.
- Successfully completed a 3-year term as editor-in-chief for the Journal of Forensic Psychology.
- Trained police officers and detectives on how to interview witnesses and suspects using psychologically informed techniques.
- Consulted with prosecutors and defense attorneys on cases involving mental health issues.

CERTIFICATES

Certified Forensic Psychologist

Nov 2020

Certified Criminal Profiler

Feb 2019