Hydea Koutsky

General

Employment History

Details

hydea.koutsky@gmail.com

(191) 518-7569

12345 Elm Street, New York, NY 10001

Software Engineer at AIG, NY

Mar 2022 - Present

- Led team of 4 engineers in developing a new software application that was successfully implemented in 3 months, resulting in $1M increase in annual revenue.
- Wrote code for 2 major features of the company's flagship product which increased sales by 10%.
- Developed an innovative solution to a problem that had been costing the company $100K per month.
- Actively participated on an Agile Scrum team and helped deliver 5 successful Sprints.
- Was part of a 6-person engineering team that developed a new web platform used by millions of users worldwide.
- Successfully migrated legacy system to AWS.

Associate Software Engineer at Citigroup, NY

Jul 2012 - Feb 2022

- Led the development of a new software application that was successfully implemented in 4 months and increased productivity by 15%.
- Developed 5 software applications that were used by over 100,000 people.
- Wrote code for 2 major software releases that included 50 new features and resolved 500 defects.
- Improved performance of an existing web application by 30% through optimizing SQL queries and caching mechanisms.
- Reduced customer support calls related to a specific feature by 75% after redesigning the user interface.
- Authored 3 technical papers on topics related to software engineering which were published in international journals.

Intern Software Engineer at Chase, NY

Aug 2002 - May 2012

- Led the development of a new software application that increased productivity by 15%.
- Wrote code for 3 major features in the company's flagship product.
- Implemented a new algorithm that reduced processing time by 20%.
- Developed 2 prototypes for new products.
- Presented findings from user research to inform design decisions.
- Authored 5 technical blog posts on various aspects of software engineering.