

Delaine Charter

High School English Teacher

I am an experienced high school English teacher with over five years of experience teaching in both rural and urban settings. I have a proven track record of success working with students from diverse backgrounds and cultures, and I possess the necessary skills to create an inclusive learning environment for all students. My strengths include my ability to build relationships with students, my passion for literature, and my commitment to social justice. In addition to my classroom experience, I also have experience leading professional development workshops for teachers on topics such as culturally responsive pedagogy and effective literacy instruction.
