Profile

I am a hospice social worker with over three years of experience providing care and support to terminally ill patients and their families. I have gained a deep understanding of the end-of-life process and the challenges that come with it. I am skilled in identifying patient and family needs, developing individualized care plans, advocating for resources, and providing emotional support. I am passionate about helping others through one of the most difficult times in their lives, and take great satisfaction in knowing that I can make a difference during such an impactful time.
