PROFILE

I am a Licensed Professional Counselor with over three years of experience working in an outpatient mental health clinic. I have worked with clients of all ages, from young children to older adults, and have experience treating a variety of disorders including depression, anxiety, and trauma. I provide individual therapy as well as group therapy and am certified in both CBT and DBT. In my work with clients, I aim to create a safe and supportive environment where they can feel comfortable exploring their thoughts and feelings. My goal is to help them develop coping skills and gain insight into their behavior so that they can make positive changes in their lives.
