PROFILE

I am a certified Middle School English Teacher with over five years of experience teaching grammar, reading comprehension, and writing skills to students in grades 6-8. I have a strong passion for helping my students succeed academically and enjoy watching them grow as readers and writers. In addition to my teaching experience, I have also worked as a tutor and camp counselor, which has given me the opportunity to work with diverse groups of children. I am patient, creative, and adaptable – qualities that have served me well in both the classroom and one-on-one settings.
