PROFILE

I began my career as a police officer over 1 year ago, and I have loved every minute of it. I am passionate about serving and protecting the public, and I feel that this is my calling in life. In my previous role, I was responsible for patrolling assigned areas, responding to calls for service, investigating suspicious activity, making arrests when necessary, writing reports, testifying in court proceedings, and providing community policing services. I excelled in all of these areas and gained valuable experience that has prepared me well for my current role.

In my current position as a police officer with the XYZ Police Department (PD), I continue to perform all of the duties listed above on a daily basis. Additionally (new job responsibilities), _____. Due to my strong performance both on patrol and during investigations/arrests, as well as excellent report writing skills, I was recently promoted to detective. As part of the PD's Detective Bureau, I now investigate felony crimes such
