

KEELIN SAJEWSKI

Professor

keelin.sajewski@gmail.com

(472) 089-4334

1234 Elm Street, New York, NY 10001

PROFILE

I am a Professor with over 20 years of experience in the field. I have taught at both the undergraduate and graduate level, and have been involved in research throughout my career. My areas of expertise include history, political science, and international relations. I am an active scholar, having published numerous articles and books on these topics. In addition to my teaching and research responsibilities, I have also served as Chair of the Department of History at XYZ University

LINKS

linkedin.com/in/keelinsajewski

SKILLS

Public Speaking

Classroom Management

Lesson Planning

Curriculum Development

Instructional Design

Educational Technology

LANGUAGES

English

French

HOBBIES

Reading

Gardening

Knitting

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

● Professor at Interstate Batteries, IA

Jun 2022 - Present

- Taught 100 students per semester on average.
- Graded 100 papers per semester on average.
- Wrote 20 research papers.
- Gave 10 conference presentations.
- Chaired 2 committees.

● Associate Professor at Johnson & Johnson, IA

Sep 2012 - Apr 2022

- Authored or co-authored over 50 peer-reviewed journal articles.
- Presented research findings at over 30 national and international conferences.
- Chaired or served on the organizing committee for 5 national or international conferences.
- Mentored 15 graduate students to completion of their degrees.
- Served on 10 Ph.D. dissertation committees.

EDUCATION

PhD in Mathematics at Iowa State University

Sep 1997 - May 2002

I have learned how to read and understand complex mathematical proofs and how to write my own proofs.

CERTIFICATES

Certified Professor

Apr 2021

Certified Teacher

Jan 2020

MEMBERSHIPS

American Association for the Advancement of Science

National Academy of Sciences